

AUTHORS

Srdan Pirivatrić, Senior Research Fellow, PhD, Institute for Byzantine Studies Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts.

Field of Research: Medieval Studies, Byzantine, Serbian and Bulgarian History 9th–14th centuries. He was given an award in 2009 by the President of Bulgaria Georgi Parvanov for his contribution to the good relation between the Bulgarian and the Serbian people in the cultural heritage.

ORCID ID: 0000-0003-0413-3882

E-mail: spirivat@yahoo.com

Anissava Miltenova, Prof. DSc, Department of Old Bulgarian Literature, Institute of Literature at Bulgarian Academy of Sciences, Emerita.

Fields of research: medieval studies, history of Slavic medieval literature, monastic literature, historical-apocalyptic literature, apocryphal literature, computer analysis of Slavic manuscripts.

ORCID 0000-0003-1731-3639

E-mail: amiltenova@gmail.com

Milena Davidović is a research assistant at the Institute for Balkan Studies, Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts. She is particularly interested in Slavic literature and literacy (Slavic manuscript heritage, scriptoria and scribes), Slavic paleography and digital humanities studies. She is currently working on her doctoral thesis – Medieval Cyrillic scriptoria in the Balkans. She is the author of the chapter The Library of the Šudikova Monastery, in D. Popović, M. Popović, Šudikova Monastery in Budimlja, Belgrade 2020.

ORCID-ID: 0000-0001-6340-8423

E-mail: milena.davidovic156@gmail.com

Radoslava Stankova is associated professor, PhD, in the Department for Old Bulgarian Literature, Institute of Literature at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Fields of scientific interest: South Slavic medieval literature (Bulgarian and Serbian), history and theory of gernes hagiography and hymnography. Autor of two monographs and a lot scientific articles.

ORCID ID: 0000-0003-1404-9406

E-mail: rstankova2020@gmail.com

<https://ilit.bas.bg/bg/members/stankova-radoslava.html>

Irena Plaović PhD, is a teaching assistant for Medieval Literature at the Faculty of Philology in the University of Belgrade.

Research field/area: Serbian Medieval Literature, Rhetoric, Rhetorical Theory, Poetics, Textology (<https://filoloskibg.academia.edu/IrenaPlaovi%C4%87>).
E-mail: irena.plaovic@gmail.com

Elisaveta Nencheva PhD is an assistant, PhD. in the Department for Old Bulgarian Literature, Institute of Literature at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences.

Field of research interests: the composition of panegyrics and reading menaia in the 14th–15th centuries and its history, works of St Kliment Ohridski in the late medieval collections, adaptations and compilations of non-Damascene words and their history.

E-mail: elis.nencheva@abv.bg

Stanoje Bojanin, Ph.D., is a senior researcher associate at the Institute for Byzantine Studies, Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts. He is the author of the book Entertainment and Festivities in Medieval Serbia from the end of the 12th to the end of the 15th century (in Serbian with a summary in English) and many articles concerning medieval social and cultural history, historical anthropology, medieval church law, medieval medicine, medieval diplomatics, Cyrillic manuscripts, and early Slavic printed books.

ORCID: 0000-0003-3424-6247

E-mail: sbojanin@gmail.com

Irina Kuzidova-Karadžinova PhD is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Old Bulgarian Literature, Institute of Literature at the BAS. Field of scholarly interest: anthologies of wise sayings, florilegia, medieval medicine, Late Middle Ages literature.

ORCID iD 0000-0002-3202-8118

E-mail: irina.kuzidova@gmail.com

Denitsa Petrova PhD, is Assistant Professor, Institute for Historical Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Fields of research interest: problems of historical writings in Slavic literatures, medieval historical writings, identification of information about Balkan peoples and events in chronography.

ORCID iD: 0000-0003-1433-2818.

Web of Science Researcher ID: AAE-2215-2022.

E-mail: denitsa_kp@abv.bg

Dilyana Radoslavova Petrova is an Assistant Professor, PhD, in the Department for Old Bulgarian Literature, Institute of Literature at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Fields of scientific interest: late medieval literature in the Balkans, translations from Byzantine Greek, history of late medieval collections, non-Damascene texts in damascenes, computer processing of medieval Slavic manuscripts.

ORCID iD: 0000-0002-2348-4365

Web of Science Researcher ID: Y-2942-2007

E-mail: radoslad@ilit.bas.bg